

Career Opportunities

2018 NATIONAL RESIDENT SURVEY

Fewer than 1 in 5 residents definitely know where to access job opportunities.

View a list of career resources

The majority of residents (65%) intend to stay and practice in the province or territory where they are training.

See how Resident Doctors of Canada is advocating for distribution of residency training positions in accordance with job availability.

50% of residents would locum in another province or territory if there were no additional licensing requirements.

See how Resident Doctors of Canada is advocating for national licensure

